

D-BOX Motion Code™ Creates Real-Life Motion In Your Seat

D-BOX Motion System Owners Can Finally Experience Motion effects(MFX) & the Sounds Of Today's Hottest New Movie Releases in High Definition Blu-ray, From The Comfort Of Their Own Home

Longueuil – April 8, 2008 – D-BOX Technologies Inc. (TSX-V: DBO.A) today reveal that several home entertainment studios will be releasing new titles in high-definition Blu-ray™ with D-BOX MOTION CODE™, an intelligent movement technology that allows customers to experience the bumps, turns and sounds of the film in real time through D-BOX Motion Code™ system.

Thanks to the talented motion designer at the D-BOX motion editing studios, D-BOX is able to bring movie viewers into the thick of the action from the comfort of their own home. By encoding each and every movement frame by frame, consumers can now experience the most subtle to the most explosive movements in their D-BOX equipped seating.

To date, more than 15 high definition Blu-ray titles from three major Hollywood studios embed D-BOX Motion Code™ in their content. The most recent title added to the line-up is Walt Disney Studios Home Entertainment's release of "National Treasure: Book of Secrets" as of May 20, 2008.

"We are thrilled to be able to complement such great movies with D-BOX Motion Code™ technology, as we know it will provide viewers with the ultimate home-theatre experience," said Claude Mc Master, President and Chief Executive Officer, D-BOX Technologies Inc. "Motion is the next big thing in home entertainment and D-BOX is changing the way you watch movies by providing a more immersive experience for movie fans. We are also providing added value for innovative studios such as, Walt Disney Studios Home Entertainment, who are always looking to push the limits of entertainment."
